

Vehicle Declaration – New Photographs Required

The agreed value for your vehicle for this appropriate insurance year can only be agreed if you return this form fully completed, together with six up to date photos of your vehicle.

These photos should be one each side of the vehicle, one of the front and back and one each of the engine bay and interior. They should be signed and dated on the reverse by you. Please note that we cannot accept Polaroid photographs and digital photographs are only acceptable if printed on photographic/coated paper and are of suitable size. If you cannot arrange up to date photos immediately, then please return this form and follow it with the photos later.
